COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAY 17.

YESTERDAY's quotation for Bar Silver is again 52½, and 60 days' sight Bills on India 1s. 8d. The market rate of discount is still given as 3-8 below the Bank minimum, but gold seems again to have begun to flow into the Bank. Quotations for Enfaced Paper are the same as before, but Consols are given as 1-8 higher.

Coffee is quoted unchanged, say Mid Plantation 61s., Good Native Ordinary 45s., and Native Mysore 50s. The total stocks of Coffee are 18,000 tons. Week's landings 2,075 tons, and deliveries 1,400.

The East Indian Wool auctions began in Liverpool yesterday. There was a good competition, it is said, at old prices, and the total offered for sale was 20,000 bales.

The Cotton Market was unaltered, and Liverpool quotations are the same as before. From New York futures come lower, being now quoted 12·51 ; and the day's receipts at the ports were 5,000 bales.

Owing to the eclipse of the sun, the Hindus have been almost completely absent from business to-day ; and the Parsee community have also been very generally absent on account of the death of Mr. Wadia. Consequently, though not a formal holiday, it has been one in fact in almost all branches of business.

The Stock and Share Bazaar has been entirely closed, and the same may be said of the Piece-goods and Import Markets generally.

In Cotton a little business has passed, and a few native dealers were on the green later in the day. The market has been dull, but not sufficient doing to test prices. A few sales are reported at a decline of 1 to 2 rupees, but there are not many buyers, and it is too soon to tell whether sellers generally will accept a decline.

EXCHANGE.—Only a small business has been doing, and rates are quite unchanged.

THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1882.

ON the morrow of an eclipse it is perhaps permissible to look into the future, and endeavour to decipher the secrets of the destiny of nations. In the present year of grace there are six Great Powers in Europe, and seven in the world. These Powers are not, it is true, altogether equal in force and prestige, but substantially they are all of the same class, and there is no one of them which would care to try conclusions with any two. France, even with her re-organised army, would regard it as an act of suicide to declare war against Germany and Austria. Prince Bismarck has laboured for the last ten years to avert the possibility of having to sustain, single-handed, a war against France and Russia. Italy, the youngest and the weakest of the Powers, feels equal to any emergency when her dexterous, if somewhat uscrupulous, statecraft secures for her the fair prospect of the alliance of either France or Russia, or England or Austria, or Germany, in any future war. The United States with an army scarcely numbering 30,000 men, and no navy at all, does not disquiet any of the other Powers ; but none of them would be so insane as to pick a quarrel with her. She could defend herself, and in the course of three or four years she could organise the means of returning a blow with interest. But she does not overawe the world, she does not overshadow

THE Bank of Bombay yesterday reduced its rates of interest and discount one per cent. all round.

SOME uneasiness is said to be felt in Calcutta at the non-arrival of the British steamer Clan Ronald, which is nearly two months out and well over-due from Cape Town. The vessel belongs to the Clan line and is a steamship of 1,357 tons burthen and 280 horse-power. She left the Cape for Calcutta in ballast.

IT is reported that Mr. Talboys Wheeler has been engaged for some time past in compiling a Digest of the Legislative Debates of the Government of India, and has nearly completed the work from 1866 down to the current year.

LIEUTENANT ERNEST C. P. CURZON, of the Border Regiment (late 34th), for some time extra Aide-de-Camp to Sir Ashley Eden, has been transferred to the 3rd Hussars. Lieutenant Curzon, whilst serving with his battalion at Dum-Dum, had a very severe attack of typhoid fever, and the doctors disapproved of his returning to this country.

LIEUTENANT LORD A. F. COMPTON, 10th Hussars, has been gazetted Aide-de-Camp on the Viceroy's staff, vice Captain Muir, who becomes extra A. D. C. in place of Lieutenant Perry, resigned.

MAJOR T. B. HUMPHREYS of the King's (Liverpool) Regiment, at present Brigade Major at Umballa, has been seconded in his regiment, the promotion going to Captain S. N. Roberts, of the 2nd Battalion, now Station Staff Officer at Dalhousie Convalescent Depôt, and who has been a Captain since February, 1875.

IT is said to be probable that Lieutenant A. J. Lushington, of the 54th Regiment, will be appointed Adjutant of the Calcutta Volunteers.

MR. JUSTICE SMYTH, of the Punjab Chief Court, proceeds on six weeks' privilege leave from 1st July. His successor has not yet been nominated.

BRIGADIER-GENERAL JOHN J. MURRAY, C. B., resigned the command of the Rohilkund district on the 11th instant. General Murray was, on appointment to the Brigade Staff, posted to the Mooltan Brigade, but on the departure of Major-General (now General Sir Donald) Stewart with the Kandahar column he took over the command of the Lahore division as senior officer, being confirmed later on in the officiating appointment, which he retained till his services were urgently required at Bareilly to take command of the Rohilkund district, to which he had in the meantime been transferred. General Murray succeeded to his allowances on the 10th December, 1880, having entered the service in 1882, becoming a Brevet Colonel in November, 1871. General Murray will only be 56 years of age next July.

COLONEL TRAVERS is still holding the appointment of commandant with the Mysore troops, pending a further decision of the Secretary of State. It is not, however, expected that he will be confirmed in the appointment, especially as his battalion is not in this country. Should Lord Hartington sanction his retaining the command, he can only do so on condition that Colonel Travers, who is only a substantive Major in his regiment, retires on half pay. In July, 1884, Colonel Travers will obtain his Lieutenant-Colonelcy, when he would have to either resign his appointment, or go on half pay. Should Colonel Travers be directed to rejoin his regiment, it is stated that Lieutenant-Colonel C. A. de Kantzow, of the Bengal Staff Corps, will obtain the appointment. Colonel de Kantzow entered the service in 1853 and served through the Mutiny of 1857-58, when he performed excellent service; he also served with the 9th Regiment in the operations on the Peshawur Frontier.

THE Press Commissioner informs us that with a view to encouraging the local manufactures of this country, the Government of Bengal have recently ordered the introduction of country-made soap, manufactured by Messrs. Barr and Co., of Garden Reach, into the different medical institutions and lunatic asylums at the Presidency, in lieu of the soap at present in use in such institutions. Specimens of several kinds of soap prepared by Messrs. Barr and Co. have been tried and found to be generally good and not unsuited to the requirements of the institutions. The cost also, at Messrs. Barr and Co.'s rates, has been found to compare favourably with that of the imported soap.

THE reports of the Revenue and Agricultural Department on the state of the season and prospects of the crops for the week ending the 9th May are officially summarised in the following "General Remarks" :—More or less heavy showers have again fallen in Assam, and also in almost all districts of Bengal. In the North-Western Provinces and Oudh heavy rain fell in Gorakhpur, and slight showers in eight other districts. In the Central Provinces there have been occasional showers in a few places. In the Mysore State rain has been reported in two districts. In the Madras Presidency fair showers have been recorded in some districts and good rain in the extreme south-west. In British Burmah there has been rain in several districts. The harvest of certain crops continues in the Madras Presidency, with an outturn either fair or below average. The harvest of spring rice has commenced in parts of the Mysore State. Indigo, sugarcane, and other crops on the ground are doing well in Bengal, where also the reaping of spring rice is progressing, with a good outturn on the whole. The rabi harvest still continues in the Punjab, and is yielding a good outturn. General prospects may be said to be favourable throughout Northern India. In Bengal and Assam the recent rain has been highly beneficial to ploughing and sowing, which are now progressing satisfactorily. In the Central Provinces, in Berar, and in the Bombay Presidency land continues to be prepared for the kharif sowings. Rain is, however, urgently wanted in Dharwar, and scarcity of drinking-water is felt in parts of Ahmednagar and Belgaum, as well as in parts of the Nizam's Territories. In the Mysore State the standing crops are in bad condition, except those under large tanks; but prospects are reported to be fairly good on the whole. In Coorg rain is much wanted in the south and north-east. In the Madras Presidency standing crops are generally fair; ploughing and sowing are progressing in the extreme south, and general prospects are fair.

THE Englishman hears from England that so great has been the demand for Mr. Justice Cunningham's work "British India and its Rulers," that a reprint of it has been put in hand by the publisher.

LIEUTENANT-GENERAL DONOVAN, who has been some time the commander of the forces in China, left Hongkong for Europe by the English mail of the 19th April. A Hongkong paper says that Lieutenant-General Donovan, during his stay there, won for himself the good opinion of all Colonists.

THE China papers state that some important orders have been issued by the Russian Government as to the defences of Vladivostock.

ACCORDING to the Gazette de Sibérie, the Chinese Commissioner with whom the Russian officials have to settle matters of detail has arrived at Kuldja, after travelling all the way from Pekin in a palanquin borne by coolies and surrounded by a guard of 400 soldiers. The journey occupied seven months.

THE North China Herald of the 22nd April announces the death of the mother of Li Hung-Chang, the Viceroy of Chihli, on the 19th April,—an event which may have a considerable effect on the course of Chinese politics. "Chinese etiquette," says the Hong-kong Daily Press, "prescribes the retirement of an official from his post for twenty-seven months on the death of a parent, and if this custom were rigidly adhered to in the case of the Viceroy of Chihli, it would probably lead to his political effacement from the Councils of Peking, as it would give time to reduce his influence and possibly procure his utter ruin. Even supposing that the Emperor graciously permits the great Viceroy to return to office at the expiration of one hundred days, the shortest period he could devote to mourning, that time would afford his numerous foes ample opportunity to work for his eventual overthrow. It will thus be seen that the demise of his mother is a very serious political blow, as well as a severe family affliction, to the Viceroy of Chihli."

THE great talk in the book world at the present time, the London correspondent of the Indian Daily News writes, is connected with a work called John Inglesant. No book, since the publication of Adam Bede or Darwin's Origin of Species, has caused such a sensation. You cannot possibly get a copy at any of the libraries, the book is in so much demand. One library has no fewer than a thousand copies in circulation. John Inglesant is an historical romance, and is in several respects a very original book. It shows a vast acquaintance with history, and a knowledge of philosophical systems rarely found in a writer of romance. The style, too, is splendid, and, on the whole, it is asserted that a new writer has suddenly burst upon the world. Of course there has been much curiosity to know something of the author's history. His name is J. H. Shorthouse, and he comes from Birmingham. I hear that his book cost immense labour, the author having spent no less than fifteen years in its composition. Singularly enough, Mr. Shorthouse, like other great men, found difficulty in getting a publisher. He was, however, not quite so unfortunate as Carlyle in this respect, but I am told that at least one dozen London booksellers are at the present moment biting their fingers because they refused the manuscript of John Inglesant.

A CORRESPONDENT sends us the following cutting from a Scotch paper :—"In the Isle of Skye the tenants are in open revolt against their landlords. 'The Laird' is no longer the personage he was in the eyes of the people of whom Dr. Johnston a century since wrote—'Their contempt of government is subdued, and their reverence for their chiefs alone is left.' On the property of Glenelg, who is managed by trustees on behalf of the young heir of the late Sir John Macpherson Macleod, the tenants are making a determined stand to get grievances of which they complain redressed. 'No-rent' and intimidation placards have been extensively posted up, the general effect of which the following specimens will serve to show :—' Any one of the tenants of Skindin who will pay his rent, not only his house and property, but his life, will be taken away, or any one backsliding.' 'Notice is hereby given, by the Miloveig and Borrodale Alliance, that Dr. Martin must clear Waterstern of his stock at first Whitsunday punctually. If not, all shall be driven off in full force.' The crofters are unquestionably oppressed, and though the means they are adopting for the removal of their grievances are open to grave objection, the agitation they have set on foot foreshadows impending changes which only a very foolish 'laird' is likely to ignore."

THE scenes attending the burial at Kearney, Missouri, of the late Jesse James, the famous train robber who committed scores of murders in the way of business, were very affecting. Crowds of people flocked together from all parts of the State to get a last sight of the dead bandit, who had, while alive, done so much to enable them to lead what they call in Boston "full" lives. Mrs. Samuels, Jesse's mother, was on the ground early, and talked without reserve to everybody. Her conversation naturally, under the circumstances, was coloured with deep religious feeling, and she said to a reporter, who in his way ventured to express his sympathy with her in her bereavement, "I knew it had to come: but my dear boy Jesse is better off in heaven to-day than he would be here with us"—a sentiment from which no one will be likely to dissent. The officiating clergyman with much tact avoided dwelling on the life and character of the deceased, and improved the occasion by enlarging upon Jesse's chances of future improvement in Paradise, in a manner that would probably have struck Mr. James himself as rather mawkish. The widespread belief in the West that he has gone straight to heaven is a touching indication of the general softening of religious doctrines in the States.

FROUDE'S life of the Chelsea sage, writes a London correspondent, continues to absorb much attention. "A friend of mine, who knows Mr. Froude very well, tells me that the next two volumes will be by far the most interesting. They will contain in an essentially unmodified form all that Carlyle said about Dickens, George Eliot, Mr. Anthony Trollope, and Froude himself. The remarks upon the latter will, I hear, be a source of great interest. For it appears that Carlyle blackguarded Froude very much, and the latter has determined to publish all he said about him. Upon no one was Carlyle more severe than upon George Eliot. He used to stamp his feet on the floor, and rage furiously when his name was mentioned. Yet I am told that he never really read one of his novels through. He took his information at second hand from his niece. And this was pretty much what he did with most novelists."

WHEN the Queen conferred the Order of the Garter upon Lord Beaconsfield, Sir Richard Wallace presented him with the magnificent diamond Star of the Garter originally belonging to the late Lord Hertford, said to have been one of the finest ever made, on the understanding that it should be made an heirloom. From an omission in the will this was not done, and after Lord Beaconsfield's death the star was sold by the executors to Messrs. Garrard, Haymarket. After having retained it for several months in the hope of disposing of it, but failing to do so, they have taken out all the diamonds—390 in number—and remounted them into single stone and gem rings of different sizes. An earl's coronet and the word "Beaconsfield" are engraved inside each ring.

THE Corporation of the City is at last showing signs of sensitiveness to the criticism of its assailants. A statement was made in Mr. Firth's article on "London Government" that a single day's entertainment to a certain Royal Prince cost £27,576, and the items—including £300 for badges for the committee in the form of lockets; gloves, perfumery, and hair-brushes £145; and the like—were given to substantiate the statement. The effect of publicity has been that a resolution was passed, in view of a projected visit of foreign Royalty to the City, that the expenditure is not to exceed £2,000. Even with this paltry sum a certain amount of cakes and ale can be furnished, and ginger be hot i' the mouth too.

THE GAEKWAR OF BARODA.—It is stated that the Gaekwar of Baroda is about to take unto himself another wife, the intended being the younger sister of the present Ranee. The native papers have greedily taken up the subject, and are favouring the Gaekwar with their views as to the inadvisability of such a step.

CRIMINAL BREACH OF TRUST.—Ibrahim Bawa was yesterday convicted by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee, on two charges, of criminal breach of trust in respect of sundry articles of wearing apparel, valued at Rs. 4, belonging to Emam Hoosein and Fakeera Mahomed Ibrahim. The shed, which was used for keeping tools, baskets, &c., belonging to workpeople, was completely burnt down in a very short time. The fire is said to have originated from careless biddee-smoking, and the damage is estimated at Rs. 25.

THE WEATHER AT NASIK.—A correspondent writes, May 16 :—"Very heavy clouds. There has been a heavy fall of rain in Nasik and in the adjacent villages. Nullahs and rivers have been filled with water. There was a deal of thunder and lightning. To-morrow, owing to the full moon, some thousands of pilgrims will come to bathe in the Godavery. The rain, therefore, has been most opportune, as the river was very low. Public health is good."

THE CHIEF CLERK TO THE PRESIDENCY MAGISTRATE.—Mr. Barker, the chief clerk to the Senior Presidency Magistrate and to the Bench of Justices, having applied for three months' leave, the judicial clerks of the other magistrates have applied for the post. The Jam-i-Jamshed states that when Mr. Barker applied for a previous occasion, Mr. Cooper, the Chief Presidency Magistrate, wrote to Government suggesting that the senior clerk should necessarily be a European, as he was Secretary to the Workhouse, where all the inmates were Europeans, and he acted as Secretary to the Bench of Justices.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR A SANYASEE'S BURIAL.—An application was lately made by Mr. R. N. Khote to the Municipal Commissioner to obtain the special sanction of Government, under section 248 of the Municipal Act, to the interment of a Sanyasee belonging to the Shenvee Brahmins in their place of worship at Walkeshwar. The Sanyasee, whose name is Venayek Mungesh Devalkar, is not dead, but is dangerously ill, and the arrangements for his burial have been made in expectation of a fatal termination to his illness. A Brahmin becomes a Sanyasee in the hope that his path to heaven may be smoothed, and Venayek was admitted into the rank of the Sanyasees a short time ago, when, according to custom, he was shorn of the tuft of hair on his head, and was presented with the garment of his order. The Government have granted permission for the burial of the saint near the Walkeshwar tank.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. ARDASIR HORMARJEE WADIA.

AT eight a. m. yesterday the remains of the late Mr. Ardasir Hormarjee Wadia, the head of the old and eminent banking-house of Messrs B. and A. Hormarjee, were placed in the Towers of Silence. People of all castes and creeds joined in the funeral. Since the day before the body was laid in state in the marble saloon of the magnificent Lowjee Castle, and the number of people, amongst whom were many Europeans, who flocked to pay their last mark of respect was something quite unusual. The funeral procession started from the Castle at about eight o'clock, and followed the coffin to the towers. It was headed by the son and partner of the deceased gentleman, Mr. H. A. Hormarjee, who walked all the way from the Castle to the Hill, though mourners, including Sir Jamsetjee, followed in carriages. The police had made excellent arrangements, and they kept the road clear. Three or four of the mounted police, in charge of European constables, walked in front; then followed the coffin, and after the coffin followed the carriage and pair, in the livery of the Hormarjees, in which old Mr. Hormarjee used to drive.

We have already mentioned that Mr. Ardasir Hormarjee has appointed his son and partner, Mr. H. A. Hormarjee, the executor of his last will, jointly with Mr. N. Spencer. The will is said to have been drawn by Messrs. Chalk and Walker, and settled before execution, by three European members of the Bombay bar. Mr. H. A. Hormarjee becomes the head of the old house. Young Mr. Hormarjee was born on the 11th June, 1856, and is consequently in his twenty-six year. He joined the firm as an assistant in 1876, and was admitted a partner in the old house somewhere about two years ago, and has been for the last few years the working man of the house.

The New Dhurrumsey Poonjabhoy S. & W. Co., Ld., kept their mills at Coorla closed yesterday, as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased gentleman, who was the founder of the mills, lately known as the Coorla Mills.

THE THEFTS FROM THE CASH BAZAAR.

CHARLES WILSON was brought up on remand yesterday and charged, before Mr. W. Webb, with stealing one pair of boots, valued at Rs. 5-8, the property of Messrs. Meiffre, Neveu and Company, of the Cash Bazaar, as well as with having in his possession ladies' and gentlemen's wearing apparel and other goods of the value of Rs. 119-8-6, the property of the company.

On the application of Mr. Turner, solicitor for the accused, and with the concurrence of the complainant, Mr. Meiffre, the first charge was framed under sections 99 and 100 of the Presidency Magistrate's Act.

The prisoner then pleaded guilty to both charges.

He was convicted upon his own admission, and the court taking into consideration certain circumstances which were brought to its notice, and the prosecutor not pressing for a severe punishment, fined the prisoner Rs. 30, or in default sentenced him to undergo six weeks' rigorous imprisonment, upon the first charge; and upon the second charge fined him a further sum of Rs. 50, or in default to undergo a further term of six weeks' rigorous imprisonment.

SMALL CAUSES COURT.—MAY 15.

(Before Mr. HORMUSJEE DADABHOY.)

A SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

COWASJEE CURSETJEE WATCHMAKER vs. B. SAKHARAMJEE.

MR. D. DAVAR appeared for the plaintiff, and Mr. Payne for the defendant. This was a suit to recover Rs. 300, damages sustained by the plaintiff by way of legal expenses, loss in business, and loss of reputation by reason of the defendant having, between the 2nd February and 3rd March, 1882, falsely and maliciously prosecuted the plaintiff before Mr. Webb, Acting Chief Presidency Magistrate, on a charge of theft of a horse, and assault on the defendant's groom. The charge of theft was dismissed for want of appearance, and the charge of assault was dismissed after inquiry.

Evidence was called for the plaintiff. Mr. Payne, for the defendant, pleaded reasonable and probable cause for the prosecution in the Police Court, and denied damages.

His Honour, in disposing of the case, said the question before the court was whether the defendant, when he preferred a charge of theft against the plaintiff, did honestly believe that the plaintiff had committed theft of the horse. His Honour was of opinion that he could not have believed that. The defendant said that he had known the plaintiff ever since his father's time; and he must have known that the plaintiff was a respectable man, with permanent residence in Bombay and a place of business. Admittedly no assault took place, and no violence was used. His Honour believed that, under pressure, the defendant gave his consent to the horse being taken away. It seemed that the defendant's conduct was quite unjustifiable. His conduct in making his groom prefer a charge of assault against the plaintiff was evidence of his malice. Under the circumstances, the court awarded plaintiff Rs. 101 as damages, and costs Rs. 45.

INSOLVENT DEBTORS' COURT.—MAY. 17.

(Before the Hon'ble Mr. Justice BAYLEY.)

THE following, among other matters, were heard before his Lordship :—

RE HAJEE ABDOOL RAHMAN HAJEE ALLARAKHIA.

Mr. Lang, for the insolvent, applied for an interim order. Mr. Dhairyavan appeared to oppose on behalf of a creditor. Mr. Lang said the opposing creditor was an attorney's clerk, who had taken advantage of his knowledge of the practice of the court and had not filed his answering affidavit until the last moment, thereby depriving the insolvent of a right to reply to it. It contained general allegations upon which, the learned counsel hoped, his Lordship would place no reliance whatever. This was his client's second insolvency.

The Commissioner remarked that it was a heavy insolvency, the man having failed for about a lakh of rupees. He had been chartering ships for pilgrims, and must have kept books or accounts.

Mr. Lang said his client was not a merchant regularly carrying on business. He merely chartered ships for pilgrims, paying the agents or owners a lump-sum and selling tickets to the pilgrims. It was not necessary for him to keep books. He had two suits in the High Court, one of which was probably managed by the opposing creditor.

The Commissioner, referring to several items in the schedule, said it was quite impossible to have arrived at them without accounts. The presumption was that the insolvent was suppressing his books and papers. The sooner he set his people about lodging the books and documents with the Official Assignee, the better it would be for him. The application for an interim order was refused.

RE KHUTREE ALLANA DAOOD.

Mr. Manker on behalf of the insolvent, applied for an interim order, which was granted for three months.

RE MEMON IBRAHIM LUTIFF.

Mr. Dhairyavan, for the insolvent, applied for a rule nisi and for an extension of the interim order. The Commissioner said he was told that the insolvent had not been to the Official Assignee's office; and after warning him of the consequences, his Lordship extended the interim order only for a month.

RE SORABJEE DOSABJEE MAJOO.

Mr. Manker, applied for a rule nisi to withdraw the insolvent's petition. A suit had been filed against him by Shapoorjee Byramjee, and his Lordship had granted an attachment before judgment. All the goods in the insolvent's millinery shop in Meadow-street were now in the hands of the Official Assignee. Insolvent had settled with his principal creditors, among whom were Messrs. Bevis, Russell and Co., the creditors for Rs. 4,000, and Shapoorjee Byramjee. A rule nisi to withdraw the petition was granted.

Mr. Manker then applied for an order that, on the insolvent satisfying the Official Assignee in a day or two that he had settled with all his creditors, the Official Assignee should make over the shop and its contents to the insolvent.

The Commissioner.—I cannot make any such order.

Mr. Manker.—The goods in the shop will be spoiled.

The Commissioner.—I cannot help it. I refuse to make such an order.

RE NARAYEN LUXMON AND ANOTHER.

Mr. Dhairyavan applied for an extension of the interim order, with leave to amend the schedule. The insolvent had been compromising with his creditors. The application was granted.

RE ABDOOL RAHMAN ESSACK.

r. Manker, for the insolvent, applied for a postponement of the hearing for two months, with leave to serve notices and amend the schedule. This was a heavy insolvency, and the insolvent had engaged two mehtas to make up the books in the Official Assignee's office. The application was granted.

RE THOMAS E. S. JONES.

Mr. Manker applied for the ordinary rule nisi for a discharge, which was granted.

RE MAHOMED FAZUL.

The petition of this insolvent was dismissed for want of prosecution.

DISCHARGES.

In the course of the day, discharges were granted to the following insolvents :—Manik Damoodjee, a carpenter; liabilities Rs. 788, Narayen Atmaram Tanak, a clerk, Rs. 1,099, Meea Hajee Goolam Hoosein and others, dealers in cutlery, Rs. 732. Cooverjee Hormusjee Hyderabadwalla, a clerk, Rs. 730, Gopall Pandoo Satbhai, a vegetable dealer, Rs. 830, Gungadas Nanabhai, a general broker, Rs. 2,451.

BENGAL.

THE BENGAL SECRETARIAT.—It is said that the removal of the Bengal Secretariat from Chowringhee to the new Writer's Building in Dalhousie Square, has been deferred until the return to the Presidency of the head-quarters of the local Government from the hills.—Indian Daily News.

THE CALCUTTA MINT.—We hear that, owing to the paucity of trained officers in the Assay Department in this country, and to the expected retirement in due course of the officers of the department, the Government of India, at the instance of the Mint authorities, has brought out from England a medical officer as probationer in the Assay Office of the Calcutta Mint on a salary of Rs. 500, and a conveyance allowance of Rs. 25 per mensem. Dr. Scott, who has been selected for the post, has already arrived here and joined his appointment at the Mint.—Id.

DEATHS IN CALCUTTA.—During the week ended the 6th May, there were 314 deaths registered in Calcutta, giving a death-rate of 37·8 per thousand per annum. In the previous week there were 260 deaths, and the death-rate was 32·4 per thousand. There were no deaths from small-pox, 104 from cholera, 66 from fevers, 19 from tetanus, and 12 from convulsions. The deaths are classified thus :—Of 8 Non-Asiatics and 215 Hindus, 90 Mahomadans, and 1 of other races. The Health officer adds the following remarks :—Three deaths registered among Non-Asiatics and five among mixed races, the mortality of which is high owing to excessive prevalence of cholera in the northern sections of the town.—Englishman.

A DISCOVERY.—In digging the foundations for the new accounts office opposite the Port Commissioner's office in Bankshall-street, some old ruins have been uncovered which have afforded cause for speculation amongst antiquaries. They consist of one angle of old cut stone masonry, many feet below the level of the ground, and which the majority are of opinion formed part of scarp of the ramparts of the old fort. Others, however, think that they are the remains of some old dock or jetty, as a nullah ran over the site at one time, and the remains of boats have been found. Those who wish to judge for themselves had better do so soon, as the remains will be shortly covered over.—Englishman.

CALCUTTA GOLF CLUB.—The following is the result of the match for the Bombay Silver Medal, and a Cup presented by a member of the Club. Mr. Bain carried off the medal, and Mr. Oliver the Cup. Messrs. Fyfe and Campbell tied for third prize :—

THE LOSS OF THE MOHUSSUR.—We understand that, on Saturday morning last, a steamer was sent down with orders to examine houses of Refuge Nos. 4 and 5, with a view to see whether any more have been saved from the wreck of the Mohussur. These two rest-houses are situated to the East of the Mutlah. They were not examined by the Teesta for several reasons. This vessel was ordered away at about two hours' notice, or very short notice. She thoroughly searched the Coast from Gunga Saugor to the mouth of the Mutlah, and those on board satisfied themselves that no wreckage could be found beyond the point at which their search terminated. Going away so such short notice she was not provisioned for a long cruise, and as it was, we believe, those on board had to eke out their provisions to cover the week they were away. We are aware that we have nautical opinion of some sort against us, but we still hold to our own view, that an inland steamer is not the kind of vessel required for such service as searching the Refuge Houses. From the time they were away, and from the method with which the search was conducted, there can be no doubt that the Teesta did more than might have been expected of her, and if she did not proceed further to the eastward, it was because having lost all signs of wreckage, further search appeared unnecessary. If there had been anything to indicate or suggest that any of those who were on board the Mohussur had been swept further to the eastward, the Teesta in spite of her short provisions, would not have turned back.

We hope that a thorough inquiry will be held into the loss of the Mohussur and especially into the conduct of the Nacoda and native crew. We understand that it was reported to the Port Office by one of the Pilots that the Mohussur had been seen about a mile north of the Central Saugor Sand Buoy going free to the eastward. This was on Tuesday evening, May 2nd. Of course, this is important evidence, and will, no doubt, be duly represented to the Bengal Government. A trial will doubtless be held; but it is to be hoped it will be an open one, and that it will embrace the condition of the ship as well as the conduct of those in charge of her.—Indian Daily News.

A GRAND NATIVE WEDDING.—For the past week, the wedding of the daughter of Mr. Runga Charlu, the Dewan of Mysore, has been in course of celebration at Sydapett, on a grand scale. A large number of Brahmins and several mendicants have been fed and provided with cloths and money.—Madras Mail.

A CLAIM REGARDING A PONY.—Mr. W. Van-Ingen sued Captain Morris of the s. s. Asia at the Madras Court of Small Causes, last month, for Rs. 225, being loss and damage sustained by plaintiff by reason of defendant's negligent and unwarranted use of a Pegu pony, the property of the plaintiff, which was sent to defendant for trial. The case was adjourned by Mr. Moothoosawmy Chetty Garu to enable his Honor to get the opinion of a Veterinary Surgeon. The further hearing of the case was resumed to-day (Monday). Dr. Hammond, Veterinary Surgeon, was examined, and spoke to having examined the pony in question, and bore out plaintiff's statement relative to the ill-treatment of the pony. His Honor gave judgment in favor of plaintiff with costs.—Id.

SERIOUS RIOTS AT GORIATTUM.—Serious riots occurred at Goriattum, on the 12th instant, between the Mahomedans and Hindoos of the Town. The immediate cause of the disturbance was, it is understood, the celebration of a feast by the Hindus, in which they adopted the disguises used by the Mahomedans at the Mohurrum, and which the latter resented. A mosque was set on fire to, great disorder prevailed in the town for some time, and some lives are said to have been lost. The Joint Magistrate and Assistant Superintendent of Police, with a strong police force, were promply on the spot, and the services of the troops from Coimbatore were called into requisition by the civil authorities. A company of the 25th Regiment, under the command of a European officer, was sent out during the night, to the scene of the disturbance, and order was soon restored, but it was considered advisable to retain the troops for a day. Several arrests have been made, and an enquiry will doubtless be made by the Magisterial authorities. A disturbance from the same causes occurred in Vellore, about ten days ago, but was put down without any great damage, and the ringleaders have since been sentenced by the Joint Magistrate to various terms of imprisonment. Four more Companies of the 25th Regiment have come into Vellore from the cholera camp, and the full Regiment is expected during the week after an absence of five months. The addition of Vellore as a military station, has long been spoken of, and with the reductions now to be carried out, it is believed that its fate, with that of all other single stations, is sealed. But with the large Mahomedan population in the town and neighbourhood, the presence of troops is necessary, as shewn by their services being called for to Goriattum.—Id.

SCHOOL TREAT GIVEN BY LADY ROBERTS AT WELLINGTON.—On May 12th a very successful treat was given by Lady Roberts to the children of the Convalescent Depot, Wellington. The children assembled on the race-course at about half-past four, when sports at once commenced. These were personally superintended by Lady and Sir Frederick Roberts, assisted by Captain Chamberlain, Captain Gordon and Major Livesay, of the Commandant at Wellington. The children took about three quarters of an hour to go through the programme. After the sports, and with appetites sharpened by the exercise, the children were formed in files, and headed by the band of the station, marched to where the tea tables had been prepared for them by Mrs. Brown, wife of the Chaplain, and Mrs. Clarke Kennedy. After grace had been sung, comparative quietness prevailed for some time; the native tongues giving place to the, perhaps, more active teeth.

between the Mahsud Hills and the Kurram Valley. The exports were Rs. 2,79,576 and the imports only Rs. 1,31,067. Prior to the Afghan war no such excess had been noted, and the cause is not far to seek,—it is connected with the "missing millions." The high prices paid by the British Commissariat for supplies, the bribes to native Chiefs, and the subsidies to certain important tribes have made hard cash plentiful in all the villages of Eastern Afghanistan and the adjoining territory occupied by independent clans, and the tribesmen are now spending their money freely at Bannu in the purchase of Indian products. Mr. Udny states that during the war "a diversion of trade took place from Bannu towards the British camps in the Kurram Valley, where a better, and in some cases a nearer, market was opened for hill commodities. But this market, though excellent for selling in was not one for the supply of the articles in demand beyond the border, which, as before, could only be procured at Edwardesabad. While, therefore, a large share of hill products turned aside for sale in Kurram, the money thus acquired found its way down to Bannu in payment for the necessaries which used to be obtained by an interchange of imports, and the flow of coin which had hitherto been towards the hills, owing to an excess of these imports over exports, was thus reversed." In support of this theory Mr. Udny states that the kaffias now bring in coin by the usual trade routes like any other commodity, and he adds that, significantly enough, a great deal of this coin is in Government currency; whereas before the war the circulating medium in the hills consisted almost entirely of Nandrami (i. e. the Kabuli) rupees. Certainly, if we punished the Afghans for treachery and double-dealing, we enriched them at the same time by making war with a gloved hand and scattering crores of rupees broadcast over the country.

SLAVERY IN EGYPT.

ALEXANDRIA, April 17.

Two matters have been taken in hand here which deserve some notice—slavery and the organization of the Soudan. I mention them together because they are almost inseparably connected. If slavery is to be suppressed it must be suppressed in the Soudan, not merely in Egypt. Slavery bureaus at Cairo and at Assiout, with their arrests of small caravans and manumissions of ill-treated women, are of little use, as long as the heart of the traffic works vigorously 3,000 miles away. You might as well try and empty the Thames at London Bridge by drawing off a few bucketsful. Well, the present Government has let it be known to those who are interested in the matter that they are willing and desirous to abolish slavery. They recognize its injustice, and acknowledge its impolicy. They do not flinch, say the Ministers, from their engagement with Great Britain, by which Egypt is bound by solemn convention to prohibit every kind of human traffic in Egypt proper on the 4th of August, 1884, and in the Soudan on the 4th of August, 1889. But, and it is apparently a "but" which paralyzes all their excellent intentions, there is a religious difficulty, which they state as follows.

Slavery is sanctioned by the Koran, and no civil authority can alter the Koran. The sacred law, in even its smallest provisions, can only be modified by the highest authority of the Mussulman Church in Egypt—the Sheikh-ul-Islam. That personage, after consultation with the Ulema, may issue a Fetwa authorizing the suppression of slavery, and then, but not till then, can the civil authorities take up the work and carry it through. Without this religious sanction abolition by the civil authorities would be inoperative. Liberated slaves would be denied the rights of property; and the laws of marriage and inheritance would not extend to them. Such is the objection raised by Egypt. As every Mahomedan of importance, whether a religious, civil, or military functionary, or a private person, is a slave-holder, and as the whole harem system requires slaves for its maintenance, there is little or no possibility of such a Fetwa being issued. The abolition question has thus come to a deadlock.

But we must recognize in time the full meaning of this objection. Its real signification touches the Slave Trade Convention itself, and in point of fact it reduces that agreement to the value of waste-paper. If a Fetwa is necessary for the abolition of slavery no Slave Treaty can be effectual which is not endorsed by the Sheikh-ul-Islam. All abolitionists who are fondly looking forward to the great day of emancipation—now hardly more than two years distant—will receive this news with some sickness of heart. But it is well it should be known, and there may still be a remedy found.

It seems strange, in the first place, that nobody should have pointed out this fatal obstacle in 1877. The Eastern mind cannot, perhaps, think seriously of what is only going to happen in seven years' time. But another explanation suggest itself. Does the Koran after all sanction this modern form of slavery? I am inclined to think that the Mahomedan authorities who were consulted in 1877 opined that it did not, and I believe they were right. I have searched the Koran from end to end, and I find that the retention of captives taken in war and not ransomed is the only form of slavery sanctioned by Mahomet (Koran, ch. 47, v. 4 and 5). The Prophet would have shrunk with horror from the present system, under which men, women, and children are hurried from their tropical homes, dragged in chains, driven with whips down to the sea coast, or to the river, or to the desert tracks, and finally a miserable remnant of them sold in the market at Cairo or Constantinople. "Show kindness to your slaves" (ch. 4, 40) says Mahomet, and again "Alms should buy the freedom of slaves." (Ch. 9, 60.) But the great doctrine of emancipation itself is preached in one remarkable injunction which might well be printed in letters of gold on the walls of every Mahomedan mosque as a preamble to an Arabic translation of the slave trade convention. It runs thus:—

"If any one of your slaves asks from you his freedom give it him if you judge him worthy of it; give them a little of the goods which God has granted you." (Ch. 24, v. 33.)

In presence of this instruction no tolerant enlightened expounder of the sacred law could have much difficulty in giving the required Fetwa unless he were hampered by other considerations. What are these other considerations? The real fact is the measure itself is unpopular. The religious difficulty is not the whole matter. Slaves are property, and hitherto there has been no question of compensation. There is the rub. Now that the nation has got its own fate in its own hands it is not likely that owners will give up their property. Voluntary gratuitous abandonment of slave holding is not to be expected. Moreover, the institution part of the habits of the people. The absence of free domestic service, the seclusion of the harem, the inferior and degraded condition of most of the women, the practice of polygamy and concubinage, are all mixed up with the slave system. In fact, until the people are more elevated by education they will not abolish slavery of their own free will, and the steady opposition of the vast majority makes every Minister shrink from an unpopular reform. Nor will the Sheikh-ul-Islam move as long as the people are against it and there is no pressure brought to bear. You might as well expect the Pope to sanction Protestantism against the wish of the Catholic world. To sum up the situation, if slavery is to be abolished in Eypt it must be done by foreign pressure, and all that can be expected of the native Government is a cautious co-operation. The present moment, no doubt, offers a very favourable opportunity. The men now in power are out of favour with Europe, and will do much to win European approval. The nation feels on its trial before the world. The Executive itself has always desired emancipation as necessary to real progress. The Cabinet has the armed force of the country at its back. Those who ought to know say that the present Sheikh-ul-Islam is open to argument and concession, and is not a mere bigot who stands upon the ancient ways and refuses to move with the times. The English Consul-General, Sir Edward Malet, has fought the battle of abolition ever since he took up his appointment, and knows the question intimately in all its aspects. But if the question is allowed to drift without any decided action Great Britain, the champion of freedom throughout the world, will assuredly find herself face to face with an unfulfilled treaty in 1884.

Meanwhile, slaves are taken by hundreds to the red Sea ports, and released by units at Cairo. Dramatic stories of escape occasionally interest the philanthropists of the capital. Only a week or two ago a beautiful white slave flung herself from an upper story of a native house and crawled to a neighbouring Consulate. But freedom with no provision for the future is a doubtful blessing. The men pass into the army, and many of the women are driven to lead lives compared to which slavery itself is happiness.

The Soudan is already reorganized on paper. It is once more brought under the responsible rule of one Governor-General, under whom are four Governors who rule West Soudan, Central Soudan, East Soudan, and the Province of Harar. Even a small grant has been made from the Imperial Exchequer to supplement the Soudan deficit. Schools, law courts, medical departments, are to be established. Once more the Soudan slave trade is to be suppressed, and Egypt, its author in days gone by, is now to be its suppressor.—The Times.

The amount of the loan is to be expended entirely on the construction of an important line of Railway from Bangaloro to Tiptoor, a distance of about 85 miles.

2. Debentures will be issued for the said amount bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable half-yearly on the 15th February and 15th August of each year and having a currency of twenty years. The interest will be payable at any of the Government Treasuries of the Mysore Province or at the Banks of Bengal, Madras or Bombay and their Branches.

3. The form of Debenture Bonds will be that given below. Each Debenture will be issued for the sum of Rupees five hundred, or some multiple of Rs. 500.

4. Tenders for the whole or any part of the above named sum of Rupees twenty lakhs will be received by the Comptroller to the Mysore Government at Bangalore up to noon on the 1st July, 1882.

5. Each tender should be in the form hereto annexed, and enclosed in a sealed cover superscribed "Tender for the Mysore Railway Loan of 1882," and sent to the Comptroller to the Government of Mysore at Bangalore.

6. The tenders will be opened at the Dewan's Office at Bangalore in the presence of the Dewan and other members of the Mysore Government on the 1st July, 1882, at noon, a minimum rate having first been fixed by the Dewan.

7. Each tender must be accompanied by the deposit of a sum equal to 2 per cent. of the amount tendered. Such deposit may be made by paying the amount to the credit of the Dewan of Mysore at the Banks of Bengal, Madras and Bombay, or at any of their branches, or at any of the Treasuries of the Mysore Government, and forwarding with the tender the receipt of such Bank or Treasury or by a Money Order payable to the Dewan of Mysore, or by Government of India Promissory Notes duly endorsed in favour of the Dewan of Mysore.

8. If the tender be accepted either in whole or in part, the deposit made will be taken in part payment, and the tenderer must arrange for the payment of the remainder of the amount of the loan allotted to him on or before the 15th August, 1882, into any of the Treasuries of the Mysore Government, or into the Banks of Bengal, Madras or Bombay or any of their branches, to the credit of the Dewan of Mysore, failing which the deposit made will be forfeited.

11. In the case of two or more tenders at the same rate (and being below the minimum), a pro rata allotment will, if necessary, be made.

12. The rate stated in a tender must not contain any fraction of an anna; if a rate containing a fraction of an anna is inserted in any tender, such fraction will be struck out, and the tender treated as if the rate did not contain such fraction of an anna.

13. In order to avoid mistakes, a separate tender must be made at each rate tendered, and a separate deposit must accompany each tender.

14. The annual revenues of the Mysore Province amount at present to one hundred and six lakhs of Rupees, and are expected to yield an annual surplus of five lakhs after defraying all charges and providing for repayments on account of the Famine Loan due to the Government of India.

NOTICE.
WASTE LANDS AVAILABLE FOR PLANTERS IN THE TAVOY DISTRICT.

WASTE LANDS, covered at present with forest, bamboos, or grass, are available for plantations of coffee, tea, cinchona, or spices at altitudes varying from 100 feet to 6,800 feet above the sea in the Tavoy district. This region is between the 13th and 14th parallels of north latitude, and the rainfall ranges from 190 to 220 inches a year. The lands are mostly within 30 to 50 miles of the steamer station of Thayetchoung on the Tavoy river. Mail steamers ply between Thayetchoung and Moulmein or Rangoon once a week inwards and outwards.

II.—Grants of land in lots ranging from 100 to 1,200 acres can be had for planting tea, coffee, cinchona, or spices on application to the Deputy Commissioner of Tavoy. Such grants will be made in accordance with the "Burma Land and Revenue Act, 1876," and with the rules sanctioned thereunder by the Governor-General of India in Council. Copies of the said rules can be obtained by intending planters on application to the Deputy Commissioner of Tavoy, the Commissioner of Tenasserim at Moulmein, or the Secretariat, Rangoon.

III.—In addition to the concessions and conditions laid down in the Act and rules, the following special concessions will be made to persons taking up land for plantations of coffee, tea, cinchona, or spices, in Tavoy, namely,—

(1) A grantee must bring under cultivation one-third of his grant within 12 years from the date of his obtaining the grant. If, after the expiration of 12 years, any surplus uncultivated land, in excess of two acres of waste for each acre of cultivated land, shall remain on the grant, such surplus waste shall then revert to Government; and the grantee shall have no further claim or right in the surplus which has so reverted.

(2) A grantee will not be liable to pay any land revenue or any price for the land of his grant until the end of the tenth year after he enters on possession, provided that he takes bonâ fide steps to cultivate a reasonable proportion of the grant with coffee, tea, cinchona, or spices. In the event of any grantee desiring a more precise definition of a "reasonable proportion," the Chief Commissioner may decide beforehand in each case what proportion of the grant ought to be thus cultivated in each year.

(3) After the end of the tenth year the grantee will be liable to pay land revenue at the rate of Rs. 1-4-0 per acre and cesses at the rate of two annas per acre on one-third of his grant up to the year 1900 A. D.; after the expiration of such year he will be liable to pay for one-third of his grant the same revenue rate as is paid for garden lands in the nearest revenue circle where a garden rate obtains.

(4) A grantee will not be called upon to pay anything for timber, bamboos, or grass which he may cut upon his grant, provided he takes bonâ fide steps as aforesaid to cultivate coffee, tea, cinchona, or spices.

IV.—The only payment which a grantee will have to make on receiving his grant will be eight annas an acre for the cost of survey and demarcation. In consideration of such payment the Deputy Commissioner will cause a survey to be made of the grant, will furnish the grantee with a copy of such survey, and will cause boundary marks to be erected at suitable points in the outer boundary of the grant.

V.—The wishes of applicants will be met, as far as possible, in regard to the situation and shape of their grants. But ordinarily—

(a) no grant will be given where the Forest Department intend to make a forest reserve;
(b) no grant will be given on such a place as will unduly circumscribe the extension of cultivation of the grazing-grounds of any neighbouring village or hamlet;
(c) grants facing a road or navigable stream will have to be of a depth double the length facing such road or navigable stream;
(d) small strips will be reserved leading to landing places for the benefit of neighbouring villages and grantees.

VI.—The Government is now spending much larger sums than heretofore on roads in the Tavoy district. If planters settle in the district, further funds will be allotted for roads from their neighbourhood to the steamer station at either Tavoy or Thayetchoung.

VII.—In order to encourage pioneers in the coffee and cinchona enterprise in Tavoy, the Government will pay to the first four grantees who begin bonâ fide planting operations Rs. 15 per head for every Indian or Chinese coolie, male or female, over 12 years of age, who may be settled and housed on their plantations before the 1st March 1883.

VIII.—In any case of doubt regarding the bonâ fide character of operations for the purposes of concessions III and VII, the Deputy Commissioner will decide, and his decision will be subject to appeal to the Commissioner of Tenasserim, whose decision will be final.

IX.—All minerals and metals under and within the lands granted under these rules are reserved by Government, together with the right to enter upon and resume such portion of land as may be necessary for examining or working mines upon payment of just compensation to the grantee for loss of, or injury done to, the surface.

Secretary to the Chief Commissioner,
